The closing of The Imperial Post Office will certainly cause a hardship to a number of elderly community members. Many of our residents are living below poverty level and a trip of 11 miles or more for services, would be impossible.

I know that the Post Office is not as busy during certain times of the year as other times, but it is always important. The closing of this Post Office could hinder the prospect of growth to this community.

Thank you for taking time to consider our Post Office and community.
